Bellis Music Camp was founded in 1957 by music educator Lawrence Bellis. Its purpose is to serve young musicians by creating an atmosphere where musical and social skills can be combined to bring out the best in each young person. The camp devotes every day to music making. Campers participate in a variety of ensembles, theory classes, and recreational activities. Camp ends with a concert.

The camp is well-structured and supervised. Our teaching staff is composed of credentialed and highly-qualified educators. We dedicate ourselves to the middle school age student and look forward to seven days of fun, enrichment, and music with our campers.

Once again, camp will be held at Angeles Crest Christian Camp in the Angeles National Forest, just forty minutes from downtown Pasadena. This site provides a beautiful mountain backdrop to our musical activities.
